

IT Outsourcing

IT project and service management can be a daunting task. Try to do it yourself and you may quickly realize that it can be great tax on the organization's time, effort and resources. By getting MyIntellects for your IT service management requirements, you can be freed from managing these issues and can go back to doing what it is you do best—managing your own business.

Get us for the following services:

- Datacenter operations
- Desktop management
- Local and wide area network operations management
- Application development and maintenance
- Web, Email, and Application Hosting
- Business continuity and disaster recovery services